Letter from Father Ray

April 8, 2021

Dear Parishioners,

Thank you for your kindness in following the directives of the parish for Church attendance during the time of this pandemic. We are grateful for your cooperation.

We are still dealing with the pandemic, but there has been much progress. Many people have received their vaccinations, and the number of COVID-19 cases has declined in our area. We are blest that many people are now comfortable with a return to in-person worship.

With this return to in-person worship, we are experiencing the challenge of accommodating the number of people who seek to worship with us each weekend. Thus, Bishop Raica has issued a decree permitting the modification of parish safety measures due to COVID-19. This decree grants permission to remove the ropes that cordon off pews in up to half of the available seating area.

Thus, St. Thomas will offer normal seating in half of the church and seating in alternate pews in the other half of the church. This change will begin on Wednesday, April 14. The pews closest to the entrance of the church will offer seating in alternate rows. The pews beyond the middle aisle will offer seating in every pew.

We will continue to offer the opportunity for worship from the courtyard on Sunday mornings, and we will continue to live-stream the Mass on Saturday evenings. The Saturday Evening Mass will be placed on the parish website on Sunday.

We will continue to require face masks for the attendance at Mass, and we will seek to social distance as much as possible.

We have begun to sing a final hymn after the final blessing. We would ask you to remain in church for the singing of this hymn.

Again, thank you for your cooperation during this difficult time.

Blessings,
Father Ray
