Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

We're coming to the home stretch of the summer! It never feels quite like things are fully back in swing until Labor Day, but schools already are back in session, and even the university will be starting out its academic year soon. But we still have one major summer celebration ahead of us: the Feast of the Assumption.

This ancient feast day (dating back at least to the 400s) commemorates when Mary was taken into heaven at the end of her earthly life—a singular gift acknowledging her unique role in our salvation, as Jesus' mother. In many countries, this feast day marks the last days of summer, when people's minds start turning from the lighter schedule of summer to the work of the fall harvest.

Normally, this feast is a holy day of obligation. These are days when Catholics are normally expected to attend Mass on days other than Sunday, and they include: January the 1st (Mary, the Mother of God); November the 1st (All Saints); December the 8th (Immaculate Conception); and December the 25th (Christmas). Catholics come faithfully to Mass on these days, because they touch on major aspects of our salvation.

Here in the United States, there is a slight exception to the obligation for most of these celebrations when they fall on a Saturday or Monday. For our observances of New Year's Day, All Saints, and the Immaculate Conception, in these cases the obligation is covered by the Sunday. This is why in the case of this year's celebration of the Assumption, which falls on a Monday, there is no obligation to attend Mass.

That said, we're still observing the Assumption here at the parish, and everyone is invited to join us for this special day. We'll have a Mass in English at 9am and a bilingual Mass at 7pm. It might not be a day of obligation, but it's certainly a day of opportunity, to praise God for his mighty deeds in the life of Mary. Through the intercession of Mary, our Lady of the Assumption, and of St. Thomas, our patron, may we recognize God's loving presence in every season of our lives.

God bless,

Fr Jantz

Here you will get to know the people and events that shaped its first five hundred years. You will see how the Church Fathers boldly confronted early challenges to the Faith—challenges similar to the ones we face today. You will learn the stories behind the first ecumenical councils and the Roman persecutions and meet many of the men and women who gave their lives to defend the Faith. The heroic stories of the early leaders and martyrs of the Church will strengthen and affirm your own walk of faith. All are invited! Call Bill or Debbie at 205-664-2066 if you have any questions.

20° DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

"Tengo que recibir un bautismo ¡y cómo me angustio mientras llega! ¿Piensan acaso que he venido a traer paz a la tierra? De ningún modo. No he venido a traer la paz, sino la división. De aquí en

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo:

¡Estamos llegando al final del verano! Las cosas no serán completamente en marcha hasta Labor Day, pero las escuelas ya están en sesión, e incluso la universidad comenzará su año académico pronto. Pero todavía tenemos una gran celebración de verano por delante: la Fiesta de la Asunción.

Esta antigua fiesta (que se remonta al menos a los años 400) conmemora cuando María fue llevada al cielo al final de su vida terrenal, un don singular que reconoce su papel único en nuestra salvación, como madre de Jesús. En muchos países, esta fiesta marca los últimos días del verano, cuando empezamos a pasar del horario más ligero del verano al trabajo de la cosecha de otoño.

Normalmente, esta fiesta es un día santo de precepto. Estos son días cuando los católicos asistan a Misa (más allá del al domingo) e incluyen: el 1 de enero (María, la Madre de Dios); 1 de noviembre (Todos los Santos); el 8 de diciembre (Inmaculada Concepción); y el 25 de diciembre (Navidad). Los católicos asisten fielmente a Misa en estos días porque tocan aspectos importantes de nuestra salvación.

Aquí en los Estados Unidos, hay una pequeña excepción a la obligación de estas celebraciones cuando son en sábado o lunes. Para nuestras celebraciones del Día de Año Nuevo, Todos los Santos y la Inmaculada Concepción, si caen en sábado o domingo, la obligación está cubierta por el domingo. Por eso, en el caso de la celebración de la Asunción de este año, que cae en lunes, no hay obligación de asistir a Misa.

Dicho esto, todavía estamos celebrando la Asunción aquí en la parroquia, y todos están invitados a unirse a nosotros en este día especial. Tendremos una Misa en inglés a las 9am y una Misa bilingüe a las 7pm. No es un día de obligación, pero ciertamente es un día de oportunidad para alabar a Dios por sus obras poderosas en la vida de María. Por intercesión de María, Nuestra Señora de la Asunción, y de Santo Tomás, nuestro patrón, reconozcamos la presencia amorosa de Dios en todos los tiempos de nuestra vida.
